8. The Program

The Film Camp for Girls at the University of Texas is sponsored by Femme Film Texas, a program of Moving Image Arts & Education, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. The Film Camp for Girls at the University of Texas offers young women the opportunity to create a short film from script-to-screen under the guidance of professional filmmakers. While living on-campus, girls will learn about screenwriting, cinematography, acting, directing and editing. The camp will end with a final screening for parents and faculty on Saturday, June 26, 2010. The staff and faculty of the camp include award winning women filmmakers in the Austin community.
