8. The Program

The Acting Retreat for Girls and The Film Camp for Girls at the University of Texas are sponsored by Femme Film Texas, a program of Moving Image Arts & Education, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. The Acting Retreat for Girls is a unique opportunity for young actresses to work with acclaimed Film Acting Coach, Mona Lee. Set among secluded cabins in Bastrop, Texas, girls will rehearse and perform a scene on camera under Mona's direction, while learning about acting for film and navigating show business as an actor. The Film Camp for Girls at the University of Texas offers young women the opportunity to create a short film from script-to-screen under the guidance of professional filmmakers. While living on-campus, girls will learn about screenwriting, cinematography, acting, directing and editing. The camp will end with a final screening for parents and faculty on Saturday, June 27, 2009. The staff and faculty of the camp include award winning women filmmakers in the Austin community.
